

Supporting Programs

Distributing Grants

Building A Better Future For Babies

Telamon Corporation's goal is to improve the health of migrant farm worker women by offering them education, food sampling experiences, & physical activity

The North East Guidance Center's Healthy Babies Program will promote equity in birth outcomes for pregnant women with a diagnosed psychiatric disorder

The Inter-Tribal Council of Michigan, Inc. plans to provide "Healthier you" home gatherings & community events within the Native American community.

Spectrum Health Foundation's PACE Project will provide education on preconception health, pregnancy planning & risk reduction as a means to reduce disparities in prematurity and infant mortality.

Muskegon Community Health Project will provide educations & services to low-income pregnant women on pre & postnatal care, ancillary health & social support services.

Genesee intermediate School's, nutrition & physical activity promotion will be offered to female students. The goal is to have the students adopt healthy habits

Genesys Health Foundation Genesys will implement the CenteringPregnancy® Model of group prenatal care for high-risk mothers receiving prenatal care at Genesys West Flint Clinic.

The Infant Mortality Program provides support services to socially & economically at-risk pregnant women in Detroit and Wayne County. The Parent Infant Partner Program provides education, mentoring & support

The Michigan Department of Community Health will provide culturally appropriate materials for the Arab & Chaldean American Population. The MDCH Birth Defects Program will help increase awareness.